DETAIL ACTION

Reasons For Allowance

1. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: the prior art of record fails to establish an electron-emitting device comprising a carbon film or a deposit composed chiefly of carbon including a graphite structure and an electrode electrically connected to the film or deposit, wherein one or more elements selected from the group consisting of lithium, potassium, sodium, calcium, strontium and barium are contained in the film or deposit, so as to avoid deform or damage to the films when conducting the high current through, thereby, bringing about the state in which electron emission occurs evenly.

Remarks

Amendment filed April 08, 2003 has been entered.
